HOUSING EXPENDITURES

Household composition and housing characteristics

STATEC conducts this annual expenditure survey among a number of households in Luxembourg. Given that not all households in Luxembourg can be involved in this survey, a representative sample has been chosen at random to represent all resident households. Your household's responses therefore reflect a large number of other similar households in Luxembourg. This is why your participation is so important.

Your data will be treated with the utmost confidentiality: the STATEC law of 10 July 2011 defines a clear framework for the protection of your data. According to this law, your participation is mandatory.

A PRACTICAL GUIDE

This booklet focuses on the socio-demographic characteristics of the members of the household (age, nationality, occupation, sources of income, etc.) as well as on the household's accommodation (size, type, energy performance, etc.). Households will also be asked to provide details of their housing-related expenditure (rent, property costs, energy costs, renovation work, etc.).

Who is concerned by this booklet?

- Information on all the persons living in the same dwelling must be entered in this booklet. A household can also consist of just one person.
- It is suggested that the person who has an overall view of the household's expenditure fills in the "Housing" section.

How do I fill in this booklet?

- The "reference person", shown first in the grid of the questionnaire, should be the person who contributes most to the household income.
- The other members of the household (if applicable) should then be entered from oldest to youngest.
- It is advisable for households to use their most recent annual statements as a basis for entering their expenditure on housing.
- The amount of expenses should be given in euros.

If you have any further questions, the interviewer will be glad to help you.

THE HOUSEHOLD

RELATIONS BETWEEN HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS

A household can be composed of:

- Several persons living in the same household.
- A single person living alone in a household.

To help you fill in the matrix, you can write the first names of the members of the household on the dedicated dashed lines.

Please indicate the relationship between each member of your household in the matrix below by using the following codes:

11 - Partner/spouse (married/in a civil partnership (PACS))

12 - Partner (Not married/not in a civil partnership (PACS))

21 - Son/daughter (biological or adopted)

22 - Stepchild (son or daughter of spouse)

30 - Son-in-law/daughter-in-law

40 - Grandchild

51 - Father/mother (biological or adoptive)

52 - Parent in-law (spouse of father/mother)

60 - Step-parent (parent of spouse)

70 - Grandparent

81 - Brother/sister (biological or adopted)

82 - Half-brother/half-sister

90 - Other relative

95 - Other non-relative

For the following question, please note that a built-in air-conditioning system generally consists of at least two units: one outside and one or more inside the building. The two units are connected by air ducts. This type of air conditioning should not be confused with a mobile air conditioner, which can be moved from room to room as needed.

19. Does the accommodation of the household have a built-in air-conditioning system?

- ☐ Yes ☐ No

For the following question, please note that photovoltaic solar panels convert solar radiation into electricity.

20. Does the accommodation of the household have a photovoltaic system installed?

- ☐ Yes ☐ No

For the following question, please note that thermal solar panels capture heat by absorbing sunlight. This thermal energy can then be used to heat buildings or produce hot water.

21. Does the accommodation of the household have a thermal solar collector system installed?

- ☐ Yes ☐ No

For the following question, please note that a heat pump is a thermodynamic device that captures energy from an external medium (air, water or ground) and then transfers it at the right temperature to heat a space or cool it down, depending on the intended use.

22. Does the accommodation of the household have a heat pump installed?

- ☐ Yes ☐ No

Question 23 is only addressed to households that answered "Yes" to question 22.

OTHER PROPERTIES

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE PROPERTIES

The following questions refer to possible other properties of the household as an owner and/or tenant. In case the household does not live in or own another property, it has completed this booklet.

Situation of the household

31. Does the household live in or own another property (garage, student apartment, house, etc.)?

☐

Yes

☐

No

Questions 32 and 33 are only addressed to households that answered "Yes" to question 31.

32. If owner

IF THE HOUSEHOLD OWNS ONE OR MORE PROPERTIES :

- All properties (with the exception of the main residence) owned by the household should be indicated in this section.
- For each secondary property, please indicate whether the household occupies it for private use (holidays, weekends, business purposes, etc.) or not.
- If the household occupies the property for private use for the entire or only a part of the year, please enter the monthly rental value of the property. The rental value corresponds to the income that the household could have earned from renting out the property. The simulator on the Ministry of Housing website (www.logement.public.lu/fr/observatoire-habitat/prix-de-location/simulateur) can be used to estimate the rental value based on current market prices. This simulator only works for owners living in apartments.
- If the household does NOT occupy its property for private use and rents it out, please indicate the monthly rental income that the household derives from this property .

33. If tenant

IF THE HOUSEHOLD IS A TENANT OF ONE OR MORE PROPERTIES:

- Only rentals (student apartment, residence for business purposes, etc.) from a private person or agency should be indicated in this section.
- Occasional rentals, relating to the household's leisure activities (holidays, weekends, etc.) should not be indicated in this section BUT in the "Various expenditure" booklet in the "Transport and travel" section.
- Rentals to an educational institution (boarding school, university residence, etc.) should not be indicated in this section BUT in the "Various expenditure" booklet in the "Education and training" section.
- If the household rents a property free of charge or for a price below the current market price, the monthly rental value of this property must be indicated. The simulator on the Ministry of Housing website (www.logement.public.lu/fr/observatoire-habitat/prix-de-location/simulateur) allows you to estimate the rental value according to current market prices.
